

About the Canada-Ontario Job Grant (COJG) Program

Provides up to $10,000 in government support per person for training costs.

The objective of the grant is to support workforce development and encourage greater employer involvement in training through cost-sharing agreements between individual employers and government:

The Canada Ontario Job Grant is available to small, medium and large employers to meet their workforce development needs.

COJG Quick Facts

Government covers two-thirds of direct training costs, up to $10,000 per trainee.

Employer pays at least one-third of direct training costs. Small employers (50 employees or less) have the option to contribute up to 50% of their required contribution in wages paid to training participants (up to $2500).

Training to be delivered by an eligible, third-party trainer.

Employers are required to complete an application and submit it on-line in order for funding to be considered.

Centre for Character Leadership (CCL) is proud to be a eligible training provider for the Canada-Ontario Job Grant (COJG) program.

If you're an employer with a particular skills demand, the Canada-Ontario Job Grant might be right for you. Applications are accepted on an ongoing basis.

Canada-Ontario Job Grant funding is also applicable to training conducted on-site, usually for medium to large size groups of learners. Bringing programs on-site can reduce your training costs for medium-large size groups of learners; qualifying for the grant program as well.

Extending the reach of your training budget and giving your staff more opportunities to grow and learn is a great reason to partner with CCL and apply for grant funding.

You can find more information here:

More Information found on the government website here.

Click here for Questions and Answers for Employers

Contact us if you need help starting the COJG process. We are here to help.

Transforming your workplace to be a respectful, engaged, effective culture through coaching, training and assessments

Kathleen Redmond, MA, MCC (leadership coach certified at the highest level by International Coaching Federation) founded this company in 1993. In this 25th year she is delighted to welcome two Associates, Patrick McCann and Michael Chadsey.

Supported by a talented, experienced support team, we serve leaders in creating respectful, high-performance cultures founded on positive character and effective communication.

Our three key areas of focus are:

1: Executive Coaching Individual engagements to create a character culture for integrity, engagement and results.

2: Coaching in a Character Culture tools and skills. Learning opportunities for leaders to develop the tools and skills to establish clear expectations, support progress and facilitate results.

3: Transforming your Department or Organization toward a Character Culture – Organizational and leadership assessments and support to achieve your goals and aspired culture.

The Centre for Character Leadership

LEADING WITH CHARACTER

ENGAGING YOUR WORKPLACE

Email: kr@centreforcharacterleadership.com

Website: centreforcharacterleadership.com

Tel: 905.478.7962

